Transcript [06]
My name is Jake. I’m thirteen years old and I’m from Glasgow. Glasgow is in the west of Scotland on the River Clyde. Glasgow isn’t the capital of Scotland, Edinburgh is, but Glasgow is old and interesting. It has cool parks, fantastic museums, and a cathedral. My favourite place is the Museum of Transport. It’s great! Celtic and Rangers are two famous football teams in Glasgow. My favourite team is Rangers.

FILM 3 Edinburgh

Edinburgh is Scotland’s capital city. Edinburgh is an ancient, historical city. Its population is about half a million people, but thousands of tourists visit Edinburgh every year. The top attraction in the city is Edinburgh Castle. Edinburgh Castle is nine hundred years old. It is high above the city on the volcanic Castle Rock. Holyrood Palace is a mile from the castle. It is the Queen’s official home in Scotland. A famous street goes from Edinburgh Castle to Holyrood Palace. It is called the Royal Mile. The houses around the Royal Mile are from the 16th century. They are very tall. This part of Edinburgh is called the Old Town...

... and this is the New Town – but it isn’t exactly new! These houses are 300 years old. The New Town is an elegant area of Edinburgh, north of the Old Town. Edinburgh has got a cathedral – Saint Giles, on the Royal Mile. It has got beautiful windows. But Edinburgh is also a modern city; home to the new Scottish Parliament...

... and the International Edinburgh Festival. The Edinburgh Festival happens every August. It is a celebration of art, music, theatre, film, dance and comedy. People come to the festival from all over the world. The Edinburgh Festival is three weeks long. There are around 2,000 shows. Around 30,000 actors, singers, dancers and musicians come to the city every August. Comedy is an important part of the festival. Edinburgh’s population grows to nearly one million at festival time. The city becomes the cultural capital of the world.

FILM 4 Cardiff

Wales is part of the United Kingdom. It is to the west of England.
Wales is a separate country from England. It has its own flag. The flag is green and white, with a red dragon on it.
In North Wales there are lots of beautiful lakes and mountains.
There are also lots of beautiful old castles. Caernarfon Castle, in north-west Wales, is very old and very big. They sometimes use the castle in films. The castle is near the sea.
There are two big bridges across the River Severn from England to south Wales. This is the second Severn bridge. The bridge is about 5 kilometres long.
The city of Cardiff is near the bridge. It's the capital city of Wales.
Cardiff Castle is about one thousand years old. It’s popular with tourists. There are concerts here in the summer.

Wales has its own parliament, called the Welsh Assembly. This modern building in Cardiff is called the Senedd (= “senneth”). It is the home of the Welsh Assembly.

There are lots of other modern attractions in Cardiff, too. It has lots of interesting shops.

This is the Millennium Stadium. It’s the national stadium of Wales. People watch rugby and football matches. They sometimes come here for big concerts. There is space for nearly 75 thousand people here. And when it rains, they can close the roof. It’s brilliant!

Cardiff is by the sea. People go kayaking in the summer, and even in the winter.

Wales is famous for its music and its singers. The Millennium Centre is a fantastic new theatre and concert hall.

People in Wales speak English, but they have their own language too, called Welsh. You can see Welsh on lots of public signs in Wales.

Every child in Wales learns Welsh at school. Welsh is an ancient language. It is completely different from English. This is a Welsh lesson.

There is lots to see and do in Wales. It’s a small country, but it’s very interesting.

FILM 5 York

The city of York is in the north of England.
It is a beautiful city, and very popular with visitors.
Over 4 million tourists visit York every year.
The city has many old buildings and museums.
It has old city walls from Roman times. The walls are one thousand nine hundred years old and go around the city.
There are four gates in the walls; to the north, south, east and west. This is Micklegate Bar, to the south.
Many of the streets in York are called ‘gates’ because it is a Viking word for street.
There is also a Viking museum in the city – the Jorvik Centre. Jorvik is the Viking name for York.
The Shambles is a very famous street in York. It is medieval. The buildings here are about a thousand years old.
Another famous street is Stonegate. Today Stonegate is very popular with visitors because it has got many interesting shops.
At the end of Stonegate is the Minster. The Minster is York’s cathedral. It is over one thousand four hundred years old.
It has got beautiful statues and windows.
At the other end of Stonegate is Betty’s Tearooms.
This is a very popular place to eat in York. It is famous for its cakes and teas.
York station is halfway between London, the capital of England, and Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland. It is a Victorian building, and it is a very busy station. Every year six and a half million people travel to and from York by train. York also has a railway museum.
